

UNIT : New York city, a global city.

Final task

Assignment: Group work.

Each group must produce a video that answers the following question: why is New York City a global city and what challenges does it face? The video will use visual thinking techniques and will consist of a succession of visual maps that will be accompanied by oral explanations in English. To answer the question, you will use what you have learnt in the unit. The video must be approximately 5 minutes long. This video (visual maps +audio) will be marked (/20).
